

The “February is Presidents Day” Quiz

1. Name the President who “wrote” the Constitution:

2. Name the President who developed the Fourteen Points:

3. Name the only President buried in Washington, D.C.

4. Name the President whose nickname was “Old Kinderhook.”

5. Who was the first President of the fifty states?

6. Name the three consecutive Presidents born in Ohio:

7. Name the President whose birthplace is now displayed on the Mercersburg Academy campus in Pennsylvania: _____

8. Name the President made famous at a battle popularly believed to have been fought two weeks after the war had ended:

_____ Name the war:

9. Name the President with the most children:

_____ How many? _____

10. Name the President whose slogan was “Tippecanoe and Tyler, too.”

11. Name the President who sent the Lewis & Clark Expedition into the Louisiana Territory:

12. Name the President who was a peanut farmer:

13. Name the President who wrote the Declaration of Independence:

14. Besides the obvious John and John Quincy Adams, name the other two Presidents who are buried within thirty feet of each other: _____

Where are they buried? _____

15. How many Presidents were born west of the Mississippi River?
_____ Please name _____ them, with their state of birth:

16. Who was President during Operation Desert Storm?

17. Name the only President who served as Chief Justice of the U.S. Supreme Court: _____

18. Name the President whose birthplace is closest to Detroit MI:

19. Name the four Presidents who did Not attend their successors inauguration:

20. Name the President whose Detroit home was recently moved from the old State Fairgrounds to the Eastern Market area, near where it originally was located on E. Fort St. _____

For answers, visit www.michiganhistoryed.org

Answers for: The “February is Presidents” Month Quiz

1. Name the President who “wrote” the Constitution: James Madison
2. Name the President who developed the Fourteen Points: Woodrow Wilson
3. Name the only President buried in Washington, D.C. Woodrow Wilson
4. Name the President whose nickname was “Old Kinderhook.” Martin Van Buren
5. Who was the first President of the fifty states? Dwight D. Eisenhower
6. Name the three consecutive Presidents born in Ohio:
U.S. Grant; Rutherford B. Hayes; James A. Garfield
7. Name the President whose birthplace is now displayed on the Mercersburg Academy campus in Pennsylvania: James Buchanan
8. Name the President made famous at a battle popularly believed to have been fought two weeks after the war had ended: Andrew Jackson
Name the war: War of 1812
9. Name the President with the most children: John Tyler
How many? 15
10. Name the President whose slogan was “Tippecanoe and Tyler, too.”
William Henry Harrison
11. Name the President who sent the Lewis & Clark Expedition into the Louisiana Territory: Thomas Jefferson
12. Name the President who was a peanut farmer: Jimmy Carter

13. Name the President who wrote the Declaration of Independence:
Thomas Jefferson

14. Besides the obvious John and John Quincy Adams, name the other two Presidents who are buried within thirty feet of each other:
James Monroe and John Tyler
Where are they buried? Hollywood Cemetery, Richmond, VA

15. How many Presidents were born west of the Mississippi River?
EIGHT Please name them, with their state of birth: Herbert Hoover(IO); Harry Truman(MO); Dwight D. Eisenhower(TX); Lyndon B. Johnson(TX); Richard Nixon(CA) Gerald Ford(NB) Bill Clinton (AR) Barak Obama(HI)

16. Who was President during Operation Desert Storm? George Bush

17. Name the only President who served as Chief Justice of the U.S. Supreme Court: William H. Taft

18. Name the President whose birthplace is closest to Detroit MI:
Warren Harding

19. Name the four Presidents who did Not attend their successors inauguration: Joh Adams, John Quincy Adams, Andrew Johnson, Donal Trump

20. Name the President whose Detroit home was recently moved from the old State Fairgrounds to the Eastern Market area, near where it originally was located on E. Fort St. U.S. Grant

This quiz developed by Dr. Jim McConnel jam1776@sbcglobal.net